

NYPENN EXPO 2010 Bible Quiz Rule Book

This rulebook is for TREK and JOURNEY quizzing

Changes/Additions for 2010 in Blue

OBJECTIVES:

To promote and encourage young people in Bible memorization and review of their Awana materials.

To provide a competitive atmosphere in which participants can display their Bible knowledge and gain a sense of accomplishment.

To give young people a greater love for and working knowledge of the Bible.

To provide an opportunity for adults to deeper relationships with teens and to be an example of godliness to them.

To proclaim God's wonderful grace and salvation through Bible quiz questions. Parents and friends may then see their need of becoming a Christian and be challenged to accept Christ as Savior.

Authorization

An Awana NYPENN EXPO Bible Quiz is authorized by the NYPENN Missionary team.

Quiz Format

A Bible Quiz meet consists of two 20-minute periods. Both speed and multiple choice questions will be asked at anytime during both periods. A break will be given after 20 minutes for the coaches to talk with their teams or make substitutions.

Teams

Participants: A team consists of two to five members. No more than four teens will be quizzing at the same time. The intent is for churches to have as many three or four person teams as possible instead of a lot of 2 person teams. Here is an example. A church has 12 teens who would like to Quiz. They should enter 3 four-person teams instead of 4 three-person teams. We will be monitoring multiple-team registrations and making sure that the churches are abiding by this standard.

Coaches: During the quiz meet, each team is allowed only one official coach.

Preparing for Quizzing

Pray for your quizzers. Pray that the truths they are studying will have an impact on their lives!

Select coaches to work with all prospective quizzers.

Thoroughly review the materials and develop practice questions.

Select team members as soon as possible.

Explain the quiz rules to team members so they know what to expect.

Work with team members to be sure they really understand the material they have memorized.

Instruct team members to know all the memory verses and references (word perfect) from the current Faith's Foundations and Main Study, all the content of the Main Study lessons including questions and definitions, and the Bible Summaries.

Consider challenging another church to a quiz for extra practice.

Drill team members in both speed and multiple choice styles of quizzing. Make sure everyone adheres to the rules in this book.

Select one person to act as the team coach during the quiz meet.

QUIZ PROCEDURES:

Apparel

Awana emphasizes the importance of modesty, neatness and cleanliness in the apparel worn by both leaders and youth of all ages. Awana encourages collared shirts and slacks for guys and dresses, skirts or dress pants for girls. No outfits worn mainly to draw attention. Young ladies sometimes lean forward and they sit in front of men. Please make sure they dress and sit appropriately. Let's allow our focus to remain on God and His Word.

Schedule

Teams are to be checked in by their coach at the time stated on their registration forms.

Coaches will have available the names of their quizzers when they check in for the quiz meet. Please do not turn this list in but maintain it in your possession throughout the quizzing.

At the Quiz

Cheering and applauding are encouraged after each answer is given. Informality helps relax quiz participants and motivates them as they compete.

Once the quiz round has started it is not appropriate for audience members to talk to team members.

Coaches may only talk to their teams between the two periods.

Quiz Questions and Answers

All questions will be taken from the material in the latest edition of the Awana publications, manuals and materials. Participants are not expected to interpret the materials.

The Awana NYPENN Missionary Team and Event Specialist will determine quiz material covered.

This year's (2010) material is Faith's Foundations 3 and Main Study 3 – A Study in I Corinthians.

Questions may be asked on any part of the materials assigned, including without limitation all the memory verses and references (word perfect) from the current Faith's Foundations and Main Study, all the content of the Main Study lessons including questions and definitions, and the Bible Summaries.

Each round will have at least two multiple choice questions that cover general Bible knowledge from the current year's study. This pertains to JOURNEY only.

The quiz master prefaces each question with the word "question." No talking is allowed from the word "question" until the answer is given.

Should the quiz master read a question improperly, the question may be discarded and a new one selected.

All Bible verses must be quoted word-perfect according to the latest edition of the official Awana materials. If requested, the quotation must include the complete reference.

Use of Handbooks, Bible and All Other Material

Once the Bible quizzing has begun, no further studying of material is allowed. Including but not limited to Bibles, handbooks, cell phones or lap top computers.

Time Out

No time-outs are allowed for teams or coaches. The quiz master is the only official who can declare a time-out.

Appeals

Only the official coach may appeal a question or an answer. The coach does this by calling out "question." The immediate preceding question is the only one that may be appealed by the coach.

All appeals are directed to the head judge. When recognized, the coach confers privately with the head judge. After the coach voices the question, the coach must return to his or her seat while a decision is being made.

The head judge may consult with quiz judges before making a decision. In all cases, the decisions of the head judge are final.

Substitutions

Substitutions may be made only between quiz periods.

QUIZ FORMAT:

NEW FOR 2010: At the NYPENN EXPO, both Speed and Multiple Choice questions will be asked during each 20 minute period.

Before each question the quiz master will say, "question," announce the style of the question (speed or multiple choice) and give the point value if it is a speed question.

Speed Questions

When a speed question is asked, the first team to respond is allowed to orally answer the question. Point values will vary by question, with the values being announced by the quiz master.

Speed questions will not be repeated unless the quiz officials rule it necessary because of disturbance or delay.

Help from the audience or another team member counts as a wrong answer, even if the answer is correct.

Questions asked (other than Scripture quotations) may be answered in the participant's own words, but must be close to what the materials state. The judges determine whether anything important to the meaning has been left out or altered so as to affect the response being determined correct or incorrect.

The first team to signal in is acknowledged. The quiz master stops at this point and the team is recognized. The team has 10 seconds to confer and begin its answer. Once the answer is begun, no help can be given. Quizzers will not be asked to finish the question.

When a speed question has been answered, a quiz official will ask, "Is that your answer?" Only when the quizzers answers "yes," or time runs out, will the question be ruled correct or incorrect with "That is a correct answer," or, "I'm sorry, that is an incorrect answer." If a quiz participant quickly corrects himself or herself in the process of giving their answer, the answer will be judged after the quiz master asks, "Is that your answer?"

No one team member may attempt to answer more than two consecutive questions.

From the time the team is recognized a team member has 10 seconds to begin and then 40 seconds to complete the answer. However, the quizzers should indicate within 10 seconds if he or she cannot answer, thereby avoiding unnecessary delays and embarrassment. We do not allow stalling by saying, "My answer is," then stopping. This answer or one like it will not count as starting an answer within the 10 seconds.

If the first team to buzz in answers incorrectly a second team will have a chance to answer the question. If the second team buzzed in before the question was completed, the Quiz Master may read the question again up to the point when the first team buzzed in. If the first team to buzz in gives an incorrect answer and no one has buzzed in, the electronic box will be cleared and the Quiz Master will begin reading the question again until either another team buzzes in or he finishes the question.

Full points will be given or taken away whether the team is the first or the second to buzz in.

Answers that contain extraneous information may be considered incorrect, even if the correct answer is included. Extraneous material is that which is not immediately connected with the answer.

For example, assume the study material had two lists of five items. A speed question asked for three of the five items from one of the lists. If the quizzers gave all five items that would be counted correct (assuming all five they gave were correct). But if they gave all five items from BOTH lists, that would be extraneous and counted incorrect.

Multiple Choice Questions

Questions and possible answers will be read once. There will be three answers from which to choose. Teams have approximately five seconds to determine their choice of answers. Team members may discuss possible correct answers. Questions may be read twice if the quiz master feels the difficulty of the question so warrants.

During the reading of the questions, quizzers must look down at their team paddles while deciding their answers. Looking any other place may result in disqualification from that question.

When all possible answers have been given, the quiz master will say, "Select your answers." When the five seconds are up, he will call, "Paddles up."

During the five-second "select your answer" time, teams select the answer they believe to be correct. Then, at the "paddles up" call a team member raises the paddle for his or her team.

After the "paddles up" call has been made, no paddle may be exchanged for another paddle. Paddles are to remain up until the "paddles down" command is given.

If a team's paddle is raised late, the team may be disqualified from that question.

At the "paddles down" command, teams must lower their paddles.

Teams are awarded 20 points for each correct answer.

SCORING

Speed:

Correct answers will be awarded 20, 30 or 40 points and 20, 30 or 40 points will be subtracted for an incorrect answer. This is true even when a team is the second team to attempt an answer.

Multiple Choice:

20 points correct; 0 incorrect

Tie Breaker:

The Tie Breaker Round will consist of speed questions only. All questions will be worth the same points. The round will be two minutes for two teams and one additional minute for each additional team. If, after two tie breaker rounds teams are still tied, a one minute round will be done. If there are still ties, one question at a time will be asked until one team answers correctly. Please, NO CLAPPING during the Tie Breaker Round so we can read a good number of questions.

AWARDS

Individual awards are given to all team members and one coach.
